8.18.010 Policy statement.

It is the policy of the City of Lodi to protect, preserve, and encourage the use of viable agricultural lands for the production of food and other agricultural products. When nonagricultural land uses extend into or encroach upon agricultural areas, it is likely that conflicts will arise between such land uses and the agricultural operations. These conflicts often result in an involuntary curtailment or cessation of agricultural operations, are detrimental to the local economy, and discourage investment in such agricultural operations. The purpose of this ordinance is to reduce the occurrence of conflict between agricultural and non-agricultural land uses within the City.

8.18.020 Definitions.

1. "Agricultural activity" shall mean the cultivation and tillage of the soil, dairying, the production, cultivation, growing and harvesting of any agricultural commodity including timber, viticulture, apiculture, or horticulture, the raising of livestock, fur bearing animals, fish or poultry, and any practices performed by a farmer or on a farm as incident to or in conjunction with such farming operations, including preparation for market, delivery to storage or to market, or to carriers for transportation to market.

2. "Buyer" shall mean any transferee of real property.

3. "Property" shall mean any real property located anywhere within the City Limits of Lodi.

4. "Seller" shall mean the owner and/or transferor of title to real property or seller's authorized selling agent as defined in Business and Professions Code Section 10130 et seq., or Health and Safety Code Section 18006.

The transferor of any real property subject to this chapter shall deliver the disclosure statement required by this chapter to the prospective transferee as follows:

- A. In the case of a sale, as soon as practicable before transfer of title.
- B. In the case of transfer by a real property sales contract, as defined in Section 2985 of the Civil Code, as soon as practicable before execution of the contract. For the purpose of this subsection, "execution" means the making or acceptance of an offer.

With respect to any transfer subject to subsection A or B, the transferor shall indicate compliance with this chapter either on the receipt for deposit, the real property sales contract, or any addendum attached thereto, or on a separate document.
